According to Brittany Tebben

Who/What influenced you to become involved in the government meeting industry? In my current position, I work with many sectors of the hospitality business – the Government sector is truly one of my favorites! My organization holds the membership with SGMP and when I took over the role, I attended my first meeting, not knowing anyone. I was quickly welcomed by some of the most amazing people I have ever met in the industry. The members of the rocky Mountain chapter are so welcoming! Their commitment to all members helped to heighten my desire to be more involved in the chapter and thus government meetings as a whole. Through the leadership and mentorship of the amazing Chele Clark, I was encouraged to run for the board. Chele’s mentorship has been vital and so appreciated these past couple of years!

Share an accomplishment that you are very proud of...In late 2017, I was so very excited to obtain my CGMP along with three other wonderful members of my chapter. We spent hours in the evenings studying and it all paid off when we all past! In 2018, I was excited to be named Supplier of the Year for the Rocky Mountain Chapter. It’s an honor to have been nominated and selected by my peers.

How would you prepare for the future success of the government meeting industry? I believe that our generation can truly help keep SGMP, and government meetings as a whole, successful for years, and years to come. There is so much to learn in the ever-changing meetings world and we need organizations like SGMP to keep us going. I look forward to bringing fresh ideas for gaining new members and am excited about helping to develop new and exciting programming. We can never stop learning in this industry and that’s what I love about it!

Brittany has been a very active/engaged member of the Rocky Mountain Chapter of SGMP since stepping in as Visit Denver's SGMP member after long-time member Rebecca Dillahunty retired. Brittany is very positive, polite & professional. She is a go getter and brings a lot of energy and excitement to the chapter. She immediately became involved as the Hospitality Chair and led that committee until deciding to run for the chapter board. We look forward to all the success she will bring as our new 2nd VP leading the membership committee and growing our chapter.

Brittany is an inspiration to the entire Rocky Mountain Chapter. She works extremely hard at her job and has accomplished so many successes in her career. She brought the same passion she has for her work to our chapter and it has been contagious! She jumped right in as our Hospitality Committee Chair and conquered many challenges. She was a shoe-in for the 2nd vice president position and started learning all about our Membership Committee before taking on the leadership responsibility. She never quits and always accomplishes her goals. She is the model of what customer service should be!
