According to Jennifer Wynn

Who/What influenced you to become involved in the government meeting industry? My former director of sales influenced me to become involved in the government meeting industry. He holds his CGMP and advised me that it would be beneficial to my career to become involved. When I started in my current role, my director of sales vice-President for my encouraged me to become a member of SGMP, as I handle the government/military market for my property.

Share an accomplishment that you are very proud of... I am very proud of the progress that I have made in my career over the last three years. In three short years, I was recognized as the Top 40 under 40 for Connect Association, promoted to Senior Sales Manager at my hotel and voted as Second Vice-President for my SGMP chapter. I am excited about the future and the impact that I can have not only on my organization, but the government meeting industry.

How would you prepare for the future success of the government meeting industry? The best way for me to prepare for the future success of the government meeting industry is to gain as much knowledge as possible through research and networking with industry veterans. I truly believe that one of the greatest ways to learn is through the experience of others.
